

City Tech Science Fiction Symposium Wikipedia Editathon
Monday, December 6 to Friday, December 10 at midnight

In short: The City Tech SF Conference coordinators invite you to edit the content of a Wikipedia entry for your favorite SF author during the second week of December.

But how? Perhaps you have some information that could improve an already established SF article.¹ Or you recently stumbled on an SF article that could use some copyediting.² Or you visited Wikipedia only to find that your beloved SF author/text has no article yet.³ If so,

Be bold! Join us in making one change, large or small, to “the encyclopedia that anyone can edit.” Here are two short videos explaining how to create a Wikipedia account (not a requirement to edit Wikipedia) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AG5GhJ-Hes> and how to edit Wikipedia (it’s easy!) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7EZ-dCSrlaM>

Want to learn more about the editathon? Chat online with us on Wikimedia NYC #citytech-scific Discord channel--you can ask any questions at any time during the week. Just click the above link, enter in your email, and click on the #citytech-scifi channel on the left sidebar! You can also direct your questions to Ann Matsuuchi (amatsuuchi@lagcc.cuny.edu) and Ximena Gallardo C. (xgallardo@lagcc.cuny.edu)

WIKIPEDIA
The Free Encyclopedia

¹ See, for instance, the entry for Pat Cadigan, https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pat_Cadigan or for Pamela Sargent https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pamela_Sargent

² See, for example, the article for Octavia Butler’s “Bloodchild and Other Stories”:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bloodchild_and_Other_Stories

³ See, for instance, the missing article (red link) for the novel The Shadowed Sun at https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/N._K._Jemisin or the missing biography for Carlos Hernandez in the article for Sal and Gabi Break the Universe https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sal_and_Gabi_Break_the_Universe (as well as the missing article for Hernandez’s short-story collection The Assimilated Cuban’s Guide to Quantum Santeria)