

Hi everyone,

Grades for Exam #3 are available through the OpenLab Gradebook. As usual, a link to your graded exam paper is in the Gradebook comments.

Please note that your grade will not be finalized/available until you have completed your one-on-one meeting with me - if you still need to do this, please send me an email and we will find a time.

Best of luck with your studying, and I will see you on Thursday (remember, there is no class today, Tuesday 5/18, as it is "reading day").

Prof. Reitz
