

Lifelong Growth, Choosing a Kitchen, and Tallow Sculptures!

Hosted by: City Tech ACF Student Club Event,

Date: Thursday March 24, 2016

Guest Speaker: Lutz Lewerenz, CEC, AAC

Time: 12:45pm, Doors open at 12:30

Room: N206

Our guest speaker comes with over 40 years of experience in professional kitchens. He completed his culinary training in Germany. Over the years outside of regular job responsibilities, Chef Lewerenz has entered local and international competitions such as the Culinary World Cup and Culinary Olympics. Currently, Lutz Lewerenz is the President of International Chefs Association / American Culinary Federation Big Apple Chapter and an active member of the community. This event welcomes all who are interested in culinary and sculpture projects. Come hear about his lifelong experience, choosing a kitchen, professional growth and exhibiting with Chocolate Tallow.

Raffle to be held March 24th to raise money for holding CityTech student competition. Drawing of winning tickets will be at the end of the event.

Tickets will be sold at the event. You do not need to be present to win.

Price: $2 per Tickets

Prizes:

1st Poly Science Smoking Gun ($99.95)

2nd Boldric Olive D-Ring Canvas Knife Roll ($81, no knives included)

3rd Alinea by Grant Achatz Cookbook ($44)

4th Art of Presentation ($18)

