Dear Mr. Ali,

The Organization of Skills USA is internationally and provides an insight to high school students of the area that they will compete in s trade of their choice, against other high school students at different levels. Having said this because I already mentor on my free time, I will have to decline. Unfortunately, at this time I cannot willingly accept your offer.

When it comes to volunteering, I always aim to give 100% of my time and effort. Due to un-adjustable circumstances, I cannot and thus will not accept your request.

It would have been a pleasure to donate my time to teach high school students about my trade. I hope that the organization will prosper and give an insight to students that they are a part of an organization that in the long run will help them with their future careers. It is unfortunate that I can't be a part of this magic.

Respectfully,

Amreen Akbar
