When life gives you lemons
you make lemonade

Anderley Fequiere

My journey's start

From the start of the semester before I joined the class I started applying for an internship and was very DESPERATE! I wanted to get the job done as quickly as possible to the point I was led astray by a scam well a planned scam for the average college student who needs money and that I was! The aftermath at the start of the semester from that scam crushed my spirit!

As for the scam, they removed themselves off the website once they almost scammed me using <https://thentwrk.com/>

The Indeed logo, featuring a white lowercase 'i' with a curved line above it, followed by the word 'indeed' in a lowercase, sans-serif font, all on a blue background.The NTWRK logo, featuring a white diamond shape with a dot inside, followed by the word 'NTWRK' in a bold, uppercase, sans-serif font, all on a black background with a white grid pattern.

80 plus applications

At first, it seemed like I wasn't trying but after applying for 80 plus applications after said scam I felt grim and out of place with all the Lemons laying around bitter and not tart in any shape or form. It was just disappointment after disappointment and internships that I just would never do even if it paid well. I wanted to be free of things that aren't of me and wanted a space that I know I could work in even with the potential of it being what I never wanted it to come to.

Then I saw the light pass through

Then when my back was against the wall I found the tart Lemon for my lemonade out of all the disappointments and that lemon was accompanied with a bag of fresher lemons of opportunity and I made that lemonade with “Calling all Artist” internship where the dream job starts I had come true! Nothing controversial nothing that would make me feel like I have to do this because I have to, it was FOOD the holy grail of design! FOOD!

Company: Calling all Artist

The Calling all artist internship is run by Marla Gotay and she gives us the run down of what's needed to be done day by day. (she also got a cute cat that walks on her desk)

This is what my workstation looks like! And what I do is solve design problems and organize.

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF THE WHAT CAN BE DONE!

The End of the Lemonade!

That was sodium good! Alright I'll stop all the jokes argon :D
