

Andrew Ko
123 Second Street
New York City, NY 12345

Bryan Cranston
456 Main Street
New York City, NY 12345

Dear Mr. Cranston

Your work on Breaking Bad was extraordinary. The way you portrayed Walter White as a tragic character was brilliant, from the appearance of the character to the mental state, watching this character transform, evolve and grow right before my eyes was absolutely amazing.

Watching you portray Walter White also provided me with a chance to study character growth and moral consequences. It taught me what my priorities was as a man and contributor to my family, it has changed the way I looked at life and the way I look at people, never judging a book by it's cover and always listen to both sides of a story. Your portrayal as Walter White has answered some questions I had on my life and life itself.

Thank you for the great work you have provided for your fans to enjoy and I look forward to seeing your future projects.

Respectfully Yours,

Andrew Ko