FURTHER RESEARCH

Choose and revise one of your questions for further research from part 1A of this report.

Revised Research Question:

Why has Zuccotti Park recognized as a space voice one's opinion?

Find a book, government document, or newspaper article that could help you answer your question.

MLA Citation for Book, Government Document, or new article:

Duerfahrd, Lance. The Work of Poverty: Samuel Beckett's Vagabonds and the Theater of Crisis. Columbus, OH: Ohio State UP, 2013.

Weaver, Carolyn. 'Occupy Wall Street' Protesters in NYC Decry Corruption, Greed. VOA News, 29 September 2011, <https://www.voanews.com/a/occupy-wall-street-protesters-in-nyc-decry-corruption-greed-130886803/145959.html>. Accessed on 2 October 2018

Why did you select this source? How does it address all or part of your research question?

Duerfahrd expressed how the protesters chose this space as place to pitch tents and make it a community home even if the public felt that it was bit absurd.

Weaver discussed the notorious Occupy Wall Street Protest, that was making a statement of the greed in Wall Street. In this article it describes why people chose this space to make a stand.

Both sources focus on how the space was used to make a stand against corruption and how the space was utilized like a community home. When I was sitting in the park, I can only imagine how it must have looked the pitched tents and large mass of people just gathered around.

Describe the process you used to find this source including any keywords and the search engine or tool you used to search.

At first, it was difficult to find the right keywords to get the most on the search engine. The school collection as well as the public library was quite limited to the topic of Zuccotti Park. There were a few tourist guide books that would mention its history and made me realize that would make a great research topic. I focused on 'why this became the place where people gathered to protest.' I received more material to go through and my question soon had an answer. It was more interpreted answer and I can find more material to support it if I had different types of sources to use.

What other sources or further information would you need to answer your question? Where would you look for them?

If I had more freedom to use different medias like youtube or online documentaries, I believe I would find more. This was quite a vocal and hot topic especially with media. If I had more access to other types of sources especially interviews of the day when they cleared out the space or how locals felt when people would make such a business oriented area an outside home.
