

As written by Brian Myrthil:

Make sure to have access to:

- open lab, Blackboard, youtube, and Livewell (coming soon)
- you need to have access to your citytech email address to create an open lab account.
- All papers will be submitted through blackboard
- the course syllabus is available through open lab
- download the syllabus and review it
- first assignment is to go to the course site on open lab, go to policies, read them and add or expand to these rules. leave a comment for credit. This is due before class on 2/3/2015
