Course Overview

This is an introductory course designed to explore the basic tools, techniques and principles of drawing. Students will develop an understanding of the five basic perceptual skills of drawing: The Perception of Edges, The Perception of Spaces, The Perception of Relationships, The Perception of Light and Shadow, and The Perception of the Whole Form. This will be continued with an in-depth study of classical drawing principles critical to achieving realism in drawing. Concepts such as Composition, Proportion and Perspective will be covered. Students will learn to further render forms through analysis of light and shadow and by utilizing the 5-value system. 2 Credits, 4 Hours (1 lecture, 3 lab) ENG 092R (ESOL 032R) and/or ENG 092W (ESOL 031W) as required.

Attendance (College) and Lateness (Department) Policies

Attendance is taken and is important to success in this class. Students arriving 15 minutes after the class start time will be marked "late." Two "lates" equals one absence. If a student's class absences or equivalents are excessive, the instructor will alert the student that he or she may be in danger of not meeting the course objectives and earning a grade of "F".

Academic Integrity Standards

Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Accordingly, academic dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and at New York City College of Technology and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion.

Academic Integrity Expectations

You are responsible for reading, understanding and abiding by the NYC College of Technology Student Handbook, "Student Rights & Responsibilities," section "Academic Integrity Standards." Academic dishonesty of any type, including cheating and plagiarism is unacceptable. "Cheating" is misrepresenting another student's efforts/work as your own. "Plagiarism" is the representation of another person's work, words or concepts as your own.

Grading System

- | | |
|---|-----|
| • Participation (in class and online) | 10% |
| • Assignment Drawings | 10% |
| • Sketchbook & Portfolio Reviewed at Midterm* | 20% |
| • Final Project | 20% |
| • Final Sketchbook | 20% |
| • Final Portfolio Review | 20% |

*Students are required to keep a sketchbook/notebook of their class work. Homework will assigned in both the sketchbook and in the form of completing large finished drawings (18"x24"). Dates and assignment must be noted on the back of drawings. Drawings should be posted to their Eportfolio

 Students Select 5-6 best Drawings and 1 Early semester Drawing.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Projects given as Homework Assignments are due at the beginning of class and must be hung up for critique upon arrival ; otherwise they are considered late.

- There will be no make-ups for those who miss any Classes, Quizzes, or the Final project.
- ANY MISSED ASSIGNMENTS WILL EARN A ZERO. Assignments received after the deadline will drop a grade. After that time period, any late assignment will earn a zero.
- A final portfolio of all projects will be handed in with the final project at the end of the semester. Students have the option to revisit earlier projects and revise them based on original comments.
- If a student finds they will not be able to present or hand in a project on the scheduled day, it is their responsibility to notify the instructor PRIOR to the due date and request alternate arrangements. Points will be deducted for late assignments and missed critiques.

PRESENTATION:

Appearances matter. Work should be presented neatly and with care.

SKETCHBOOK:

You are expected to work on sketchbooks and assignments for a minimum of FOUR hours per week outside of class. You will find that assignments will take a lot more than that to be successful. Students are required to utilize outside of class Resources listed on the Class Site.

Extra Credit:

There will be opportunities for Extra Credit to be earned through: class trips or attending lectures from guest speakers. Proof of attendance and an additional assignment will be required.

Resources:

City Tech is in the heart of one of the most vibrant art communities in the world. As such there are numerous additional resources for students to take advantage of to practice and improve their skills. A Full Resource list is available on the Class Site.

Critiques

Each student will present his/her work weekly for critique using appropriate design vocabulary. The critique is a neutral dialogue. Students will present their work and discuss the strengths and weaknesses, expressing what works and what doesn't work in relation to the assignment guidelines. Peer responses will be given. No personal likes or dislikes are discussed without elaborating on the "why" of it. Design-specific terminology should be used at all times.

Communication

Communication is at the heart of everything you do as a creative professional. Whether you go on to become a designer, illustrator, art director, game designer, or any one of the numerous careers that the COMD department is preparing you for, your number one goal is to communicate, and to do it visually. To be able to communicate visually you also need to be able to communicate verbally. One of the most important and overlooked skills in our industry is to be able to express yourself clearly so that other people understand what you are saying. With that in mind you should always try to express yourself as clearly as possible in your classes. Within this class you are expected to communicate with your classmates and with your professor. If you are going to miss a class it is your responsibility to let the professor know. If you are sick and miss a class when an assignment is due you will get a zero unless you contact your professor. If you have a question or are confused about something COMMUNICATE! Ask a question, send an email. Ignorance is not an excuse.
