

Exercise 3

Copy the drawings onto a sheet of typing paper and develop the gradation and steps with a felt tip pen using a texture of small random marks. Vary the density of the marks to change the value. Build the steps and gradations gradually in relationship to each other. Analyze the drawings and use the values to maximize the illusion of three dimensionality.

