

Jan. 12, 2022

925 Bergen Street suite 105
Brooklyn, NY 11238
www.pluslabglobal.com

Job Posting 046: Climate Adaptation Research Assistant

Description

Brooklyn-based Architecture Studio with global project portfolio is seeking a recent graduate, current advanced Undergrad, or Grad student candidate, to assist with studio's continued research on Climate Science and the Built Environment. Position will provide support to on-going and future work including development of education curriculum material & presentation documents, and support in Graphic Representation and Publishing.

Education/Background

Has completed, or working toward a Bachelor Degree in Urban Planning, Architecture, Geography, Environmental Science or Related Field preferred.
Strong Interest in Sustainability & Resilience.
Established track record of Research.
Knowledge of the Built Environment & Construction a plus.

Skills:

Strong Research/Citation, Documentation, and Digital Filing.
Data Collection & Organization.
Excellent Written Communication.
Self Starter & Deadline-Conscious
Excellent Graphic Skills a plus (Adobe Design Suite)
AutoCAD Drafting a plus
GIS a plus

Work Location:

In Studio & Remote

Hours per Week.

Part Time: 10-15 Hours

Compensation

Commensurate based on experience and ability

Application

Please send resume and samples of work to architects.pluslab@gmail.com
Use subject line Job Posting 046