

Project Architect

Graf & Lewent

Architects LLP

Graf & Lewent Architects a 10 person client centric design and planning firm with roots in Queens, New York is looking for a Project Architect to grow with our firm.

In existence for 32 years, Graf & Lewent Architects is known for its work on many local landmark and iconic buildings. Our expertise includes high-tech environments for both educational laboratories and the airline industry, adaptive re-use and public-private collaborations. The firm's partners are intimately involved with each project fostering a paramount tenet of customer service and leading to high degree of repeat clients. Our goal is to delight our clients.

Position Specifications/Responsibilities:

- Work on projects from inception through construction
- Self-starter with ability to interface with the firm's Partners and integrate ideas
- Strong design and organizational skills
- Ability to work both alone and on a small team
- Communicate and collaborate effectively with all stakeholders

Candidate Qualifications:

- Autocad proficient
- Knowledge of architectural software packages such as 3d, Sketch Up and BIM
- Committed to client service and follow through, with a strong attention to detail
- Bachelor's degree in Architecture or a Masters in Architecture

About Graf & Lewent Architects LLP:

Founded in 1989, Graf & Lewent Architects has been recognized for both professionalism and excellence in design. Our office is culturally diverse and fosters unique perspectives and personal growth coupled with a balanced work environment.

We are located in Jamaica, Queens in close proximity to public transportation.

Location: Jamaica, Queens

Salary: Open

Category: Architect

Type: Full Time – Entry Level

Preferred Education: Bachelors of Architecture

Contact: Please send resume via email: h.davis@glarchitects.com