

Kalinago Resilience Initiative

Recovery, Climate Resilience, and Sustainable Development

1400

Kalinago Thriving & Dominant Ancient Seafaring Culture In Balance with Caribbean Ecosystems

Centuries of Suffering under European Imposed Genocide

2015

Loss of Cultural & Social Integrity

Political & Social Subjugation

Lack of Education, Employment & Livelihood Advancement

Climate Change Impacts
Hurricanes, Flooding, Drought

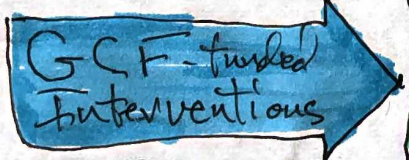

2019

Physical & Psychosocial Challenges
Substance Abuse, Mental Health Problems

Ecosystem Destruction
Watersheds, Rainforest, Ocean

Fragile & Destroyed Infrastructure
Electricity, Courts, Water, Sanitation, Economy

Human Security Failures
Shelters, housing, Domestic & Community Violence

Creating an Integrated set of Resilience, Regenerative & Sustainable Systems consistent with Kalinago Indigenous values Enabling Thriving KT communities Addressing 21st Century Requirements for Climate Change Management

2020-2023

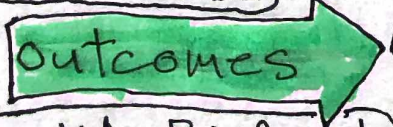

Culture Learning Systems and Innovation

Agroforestry & Permaculture

Distributed Collectively Intelligent Grid

Resilience Hubs

2022-2032

Healthy Rainforest
Productive Agroforestry
Healthy Forested Watersheds
Food Security

Carbon Reduction

Circular Economy
Well-paying Livelihoods
Thriving Green Businesses
Increased Trade
Local Green Tech Production

Digital Banking
Insurance
Finance

Safe Shelters During Emergencies
Community Centers During Normal Times

Sharing Economy
Ecotourism
Electric Vehicles
Enhanced Courts
Computing Network
Renewable Energy