Dear Ilya Azaroff,

On behalf of the American Institute of Architects and the Convention Education Team, we wish to thank you for the invaluable contribution you made at the AIA Convention 2016 in Philadelphia. From the feedback we've received, the convention education program was a great success.

We appreciate the time you took out of your busy schedule to join us and thank you for sharing your insights and expertise with our attendees. Your willingness to volunteer your time, energy and support on behalf of AIA Convention Education Program is greatly appreciated.

UPDATES:

Session Evaluations : We are still collecting session evaluations. We will begin analyzing the results next week and plan to distribute the ratings and highlights to you during the week of June 22nd. The Continuing Education team will reach out to you directly with results and next steps.

Continuing Education Credits : Credits will be uploaded to AIA Member transcripts on May 30th. Please log into your CES account at <http://myces.aia.org/frmlLogin.aspx> to review your official AIA CES Transcript. If you are not an AIA member and require a copy of your record of attendance, please email convention@aia.org

Speaker Survey : We always strive to improve the convention experience and to that end we would appreciate you sharing any feedback you have about your experience as a speaker. Please share your comments with us via this link:

2017 Call for Proposals: We invite to submit a proposal for the AIA Convention 2017. Please visit the convention website for more details about the 2017 education program.

Again, many thanks for your time and effort. We look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,

AIA Convention 2016

Convention Education Team
