Chapter XII: Examples-- Model

- This chapter emphasizes how taking action will get you to where you want to be
 - “Working by action is always more forcible than words” (Smiles 301)
 - We have always been led by example (as children) and we should be led by example in our adulthood as well
 - “Good rules may do much, but good models far more; for in the latter we have instruction in action (Smiles 307)
 - Surround yourself with like-minded people or people that are ahead of you (to gain knowledge)
