KENNY ORTEGA

*H*appy birthday Kokonut! May your life continue to be enriched with love, opportunity, and great adventures.

There has never been a doubt in my mind that you were destined for greatness.

With love and admiration,
Kenny

MICHAEL KOHLI

*B*eing Alex Ko's childhood dance teacher is one of my greatest achievements professionally. I am blessed to say I have known Alex his entire life. I am Alex's real "Mrs. Wilkinson". When Alex began dancing I was amazed at what he could accomplish at such a young age. We have been like family for over 20 years. Thank you for continuing to allow me to be a part of your life. We all danced together for many years and I am honored to be here for this special occasion.
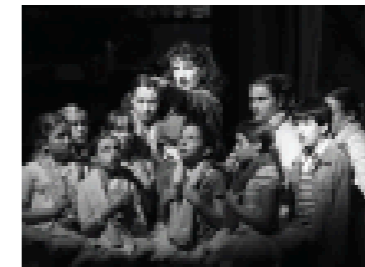

• The Client got very satisfied with the final Product.

Broadway Shines Branding

Broadway Shines was founded by Stephen Daldry and Tammie Cumming. Their goal is to become a global organization that aligns its mission with the United Nations Global and work with the Broadway community to provide leadership and mentor opportunities for the youth on Broadway from current and past Broadway shows.
