Dear Sir:

I understand that Culture Unlimited is expanding it's stores in Ohio and would like to apply for a management position with your company. Having been unemployed for 13 months, I am anxious to locate a stable position with a good salary and reasonable benefits.

I was last employed with the accounting department of Enron for a few years. Prior to that, I held a position in the research department of Udder Industries just before they went bankrupt. For a year I been working with Swifty Airlines in the assembly division but was released when a cargo door blew off the airplane at 20,000 feet. As I'm sure the company officials will tell you, the problem weren't my fault. It was mostly an error with their quality control people.

Enclosed you will find more detailed information on my resume.

Thank you,
Emma Dyer

PS: I am anxiously awaiting your reply.
