

Carlos Contreras
Business Law 1122
Homework: 10

I. Contracts in restraint of trade are (a.) always void.

II. An unconscionable agreement is a contract that is so unfair or one-side that it will not be enforced.

III. Covenants are promises not to compete and their legality is determined by how restrictive the promise is.

IV. I don't believe that Manix can recover the money he paid the attorney because what he was doing was illegal as well.

V. I don't believe Ashberry can refuse to pay Karns the rental fee because he wasn't aware of what was really going on with his plane.

VI. I don't believe the promise to not compete is valid in this case because the time frame is too large of a gap. Maybe if it was shorter, but a promise to not compete for 10 years sounds ridiculous.

VII. I don't believe that Downtown Repair Shop is liable because they clearly let Madison know before hand in case she wanted to take her car to a different place.

VIII. I can't legally sue Higgins for the $50 because we're both casual gamblers.

IX. I don't believe Curtis can legally claim the money because the promise was illegal.

X. Lando cannot refuse payment on the grounds that what the attorney did was illegal because what he did wasn't illegal.

Cases for Review:

I. I believe that the interest rate should be brought down to a reasonable interest rate so both men don't leave empty handed.

II. I don't think Eelbode should be successful in his lawsuit because he should've known what he was getting into.

III. I believe that Topp Copy is not correct because if the lease said all that and they didn't think things twice, it's their fault.

IV. I don't think he can claim his fees because not renewing his license is on him.

V. I believe that the Supreme court should decide in favor of Bateman Eichler because what they all did was illegal making everything void.

VI. The hospital can't excuse themselves from all liabilities because Tunkl was in no shape to be signing anything.

VII. I believe the race organizers are correct because one should know it's a dangerous thing to participate in these types of races and anything can happen.