PLEASE NOTE: You should review the names and vocabulary on slide lists #5–6 for the final.

Tips on how to use slide lists #5-6. On the bottom of each slide list are important names and terms associated with the photographs on the list. As you review your notes and read the textbook, keep an eye out for these terms. For example, as you review the images, notes, and reading for slide list #5, you will come across the names and terms time lapse, sequential photography, and motion studies are related to the following images: Eadweard Muybridge, Sequence photographs of trot and gallop, from Nature, 1878; Eadweard Muybridge, Ascending and Descending Stairs, from Animal Locomotion, 1870s; and Etienne-Jules Marey, Joinville Soldier Walking, 1883. Use your notes and textbook to understand the concepts of sequential photography in relation to motion studies.
