To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write this reference for Connie Koo, a leadership student I was fortunate to work with during her summer semester with New York City College of Technology. I am the Nurse Manager for a medical/surgical unit at Maimonides Medical Center where Ms. Koo had her clinical rotation. Ms. Koo has impressed me by her work ethic and attention to detail during her rotation. She has the requisite qualifications and knowledge expected of every new Registered Nurse.

Ms. Koo is very passionate and knowledgeable about the nursing profession. She is very respectful and compassionate in her interactions with patients and their families. Ms. Koo has an excellent ability to communicate to members of the interdisciplinary team, has a pleasing demeanor and liked by all who have interacted with her.

It is my opinion that Ms. Koo is an extremely competent individual who displays great initiative, is an effective team player and is eager to learn. I would recommend her to any institution or practice without reservation. If I can be of further assistance to you concerning Ms. Koo, please feel free to contact me at the e-mail address and number above.

Sincerely,

Luis Medina, DNP, RN, FNP-BC
