

The goal was create a short film for the project and present our skills.im doing a project based on what has happened daily during Covid 19 days and interview my mom in the process about how Covid has impacted her work. In the end everybody is having a hard time because we weren't sure if we were gonna get food on the table. Even paying mortgages might be difficult.