

CAN YOU PLEASE
ADOPT ME

Cat Facts

According to the ASPCA animal shelters around the country receive around three million stray cats every year. It is also noted that a lot of these cats are also getting adopted at a faster rate than their canine counterparts.

Adopting a kitten or older cat can save these animals from being euthanized. Approximately 530,000 cats are euthanized each year here in the United States. This process is done to try and control the cat population which is estimated to be between 60 and 100 million.

Cat Owner Information

To adopt you must be at least 18 years old and then the adoption process can begin. With the paperwork and medical treatment including spaying or neutering all for a total of around $150 dollars.

When looking at my target audience which range between the ages of 18-35. Gen-Z and Millennials combined make up a total of 53.2% of cat owners.

According to a survey by Joybird.com in the United States 49% of women are cat owners, while men are just 39% of cat owners.

Uncustomary.org, stated in their latest survey that the hobbies commonly enjoyed by cat owners consist of reading, gaming, dancing and engaging in karaoke.

Cat Owner Research

When it comes to education the National Institute of Health had conducted a study that states the percentage of cat owners who are college educated is around 31.3%.

A survey by Reliableplant.com stated that cat owners typically are of the middle class.

According to Pewresearch.org 60% of cat owners are married with 22% being divorced and with 17.5% never being married.

Statista.com tells us that the average income for cat owners in the United States hovers just around $86,900 dollars.

Here is a interesting fact the state of Vermont has the most cat owners in America according to Statista.com.

Sketches Of Poster Ideas

I wanted the cat to stand out to show hierarchy in my poster. With the font being the second most prominent thing. In my second poster, I felt adding another cat the poster would make the final visually more understanding according to the captions that I used.
