

Discovering New FLU in New Species

This pie chart shows the number of new species that was discovered in different countries. And from these species some contained flu that could hurt humans, mammals or other animals.

From 188-424 New Species have been discovered from all around the world in last 1-2 Decades.

Every year 36,000-46,000 people die from regular flu.