

Like food? Like videography? If you answered yes to both then please consider working with Clickdaily.

For the summer of 2016 we are looking to fill a videographer intern position which will be responsible for the following:

1. Working with the lead photographer during photo/video sessions with clients.
2. Shooting and editing short videos on a regular basis.
3. Uploading videos to company's cloud storage.
4. Doing occasional video sessions covering brunch hours.

Clickdaily is a social media management start up that helps restaurants in the NYC area build and expand their social media platforms (i.e. Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.) We offer all of our clients professional photography sessions to capture the beauty and uniqueness of each client's location and food.

Requirements:

At least 1 years' experience dedicated to working with a modern DSLR (any brand is fine: Nikon, Canon, Sony, Pentax, etc.)

At least 3 month's experience dedicated to interior videography.

Own your own camera equipment: camera body and lenses. (If you own portable lighting equipment that is big plus.)

Hard working, timely, professional and polite attitude. Even as an intern you will be a key representative of Clickdaily to our clients.

This is an excellent opportunity to gain real-world experience, to build up your personal portfolio, and make industry connections.

If you feel that you are right for the job, then we'd love to hear from you. Please send us your resume and links to your portfolio (e.g. website, blog, Vimeo, YouTube) if applicable. Please send your information to info@clickdaily.com
