Primary sources = "The Law"!

U.S. Constitution!

Highest law of the land!

Includes amendments → such as the Bill of Rights! (first 10)

Statutes = written laws enacted by a legislature—such as:

- \triangleright federal Affordable Care Act (Obamacare), Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) \rightarrow by U.S. Congress
- \triangleright New York Bail Reform Law, CPLR! \rightarrow by N.Y.S. Legislature

Administrative law = rules, orders, decisions of administrative agencies

- > such as N.Y.C. Dep't of Buildings, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), NYS Dep't of Labor
- > also includes Executive Orders by Presidents and Governors

Common law = law set forth in decisions made by judges in cases that come before courts

- > a/k/a "case law"
- > such as Sussman v. Grado!
- > collected in books called reporters
- ➤ Stare decisis = "Let the decision stand" → legal principle: courts are required to follow prior decisions (precedent)

Secondary Sources = "About the Law"!

- books and articles that summarize, interpret, or index (help you find) the law
- ➤ helpful in researching and understanding primary sources

Examples:

- legal encyclopedia = compilation of summaries of legal rules on various topics
- digest = compilation of short summaries of court decisions
- annotations = brief summaries of cases and statutes and how they are interpreted and applied
