

LAW 1101 Intro to Paralegal Studies/Fall 2022/Coughlin
Final exam study suggestions!

The exam will address all material we have covered since the beginning of the semester!

You should review all quizzes, class notes (your own, plus those posted on OpenLab); and assigned readings!!

You may NOT refer to any paper or electronic sources while completing the exam. Just your big, smart BRAIN!! ☺

You should focus (but not limit) your studying to the following terms and concepts!

Paralegal roles and responsibilities

- what it means to be a "certified paralegal" (the qualifications/requirements)
- tasks paralegals may and may not perform, and why (e.g., may not give legal advice or set legal fees)

Workings of a law office

- retainer; retainer agreement
- types of legal fee arrangements including fixed; hourly; contingency
- double billing

Ethics and Professional Responsibility

- who determines attorney and paralegal ethical rules
- duties of competence and confidentiality
- conflicts of interest
- unlawful/unauthorized practice of law (UPL)
- consequences to paralegals and attorneys of violating legal ethics

Court systems

- Federal court system including District Cts.; Cir. Cts. of Appeals (13); Supreme Court (levels and functions of each)
- name of New York's highest court
- types of jurisdiction including general; exclusive; concurrent; federal question; diversity; original; appellate
- writ of certiorari (including what it means to grant or deny)

Sources of law

- types of law including statutes; case/common law; administrative law
- primary and secondary authority
- mandatory (binding) and persuasive authority
- U.S. Constitution including the Bill of Rights

Legal research

- types of secondary sources including legal encyclopedias; digests; annotations
- reporters
- citations (including parts of a case citation)
- types of judicial opinions including unanimous; affirm; reverse; dissent; concur

Legal writing

- types of legal writing including pleadings; discovery; general legal correspondence; interoffice/legal memorandum
- types of general legal correspondence (letters) including informative; demand; confirmation; opinion
- what paralegals should know when they accept a writing assignment
- when and how paralegals may sign letters; types of letters paralegals may and may not sign

STUDY HARD!! Preparation is the key to success. ☺