Become a Peer Mentor!

Why Become A Peer Mentor?

Peer Mentors are role models who are eager to share their experiences and knowledge to help new City Tech students adjust to college life. You will develop leadership, presentation, and communication skills through your work-- excellent for resumes and future career goals. Most importantly, you will get to help others and participate in meaningful work that truly makes a difference for so many. In addition to getting paid, Peer Mentors find that the job itself is very rewarding.
