STUDENT RESPONSES

Prof. Stewart is dedicated to creating a positive learning environment and is very transparent about what is expected out of her students. Very fun and educational class.

Amazing professor, she's really interactive and makes one feel welcomed and comfortable. Teaching style is really good and put together. Can be strict but is always open to help students who are struggling. Overall, best professor i've had yet.

This professor is very professional and very empathetic with the students. She went above and beyond when it came to teaching. Not only did she speak of products that we probably would never ever see much less sampled. Yet, she actually brought in some of the products and let us sample them. I know she did not have to do that but that speaks to the type of person she is. I know not every new student will be able to get her as their teacher but I am sure glad I did. I am actually going to feel sorry for those that never got her as their teacher because they are going to miss out on a great deal. EXCELLENT PROFESSOR!!!
