

Grading Rubric
for
Biofilm Management - Interactive Video Post Assignment

Category	20	15	10	5
Presentation	Well-rehearsed with smooth delivery that holds listener's attention.	Rehearsed with smooth delivery that holds listener's attention most of the time.	Delivery not smooth, but able to maintain interest of the listener most of the time.	Delivery not smooth and listener's attention would be lost.
Organization	Content is presented in a well-organized manner that flows in an order the patient can follow and understand.	Content is presented in a somewhat organized manner but does not flow in an order patient can easily follow to understand.	Content is presented but not in an organized manner. It does not flow well and could possibly make it difficult for patient to follow and understand.	Content is presented in an unorganized manner. Lacks a flow in explanation causing confusion to the patient and a lack of understanding.
Oral Presentation	Presenter verbiage is professional, uses relatable language patient can understand, speaks clearly, at an appropriate, volume and pace.	Presenter verbiage is professional, uses relatable language patient can understand most of the time, speaks somewhat clearly, at an appropriate, volume and pace.	Some verbiage is unprofessional, language may not be relatable to patient. Volume and pace need improvement.	Presenter verbiage is unprofessional, language unrelatable to patient. Volume and pace need improvement.
Content	Cover topic in-depth with details and examples. Demonstrated excellent subject knowledge.	Includes essential knowledge about the topic. Demonstrated satisfactory subject knowledge.	Includes essential information about the topic but there are 1-2 factual/descriptive errors.	Content is minimal OR there are several factual/descriptive errors.
Mechanics	Duration of audio/video presentation between 2 - 3 minutes.	Duration of audio/video presentation less than 2 minutes OR more than 3 minutes.	Duration of audio/video presentation less than 90-seconds OR more than 3.5 minutes.	Duration of audio/video presentation less than 1 minute OR over 4 minutes.