Kyle Joshua E-Profile

Hi my name is Kyle, I'm 21 years old and I'm a undergraduate transfer student from Long Island University majoring in hospitality management. I currently work for the Department of Environmental Protection as a city park worker and have worked in the retail industry for many years which gave me a decent amount of customer service skills. I want to utilize those skills and gain more knowledge on the hospitality industry, so I could meet me future goals of managing multiple high end hotels or casinos. Im interested in the casino becuae Im looking for an exciting and entertaining career, and I have a passion for helping people.
