

In this presentation below, I'll walk you all through my experience finding and landing an internship. I'll also give you a look at what my role involves, some of the projects I've worked on, and what I've learned so far. In the final part, I'll reflect on the skills I've gained and how this experience has helped me grow professionally. Here are the links below: