PART 1

Theo sits on the dresser and watches Grace get ready for work, he's sad that he'll be home alone all day and wishes she could spend every day like Sunday, watching Netflix, eating snacks and giving him kitty cuddles. As he watches Grace get ready the breeze blowing the string for the blinds catches his eye! He knows Grace will yell if he jumps up from the dresser and knocks her things down but that string looks so enticing!

CHOICE ONE: Jump down from the dresser and up onto the window the right way.

PART 2

Before Grace leaves for work she fills up your food dish and water bowl to the top. You run into the kitchen to watch her pour the food into the dish, got to make sure she really fills it to the tippy top because eight hours with no human around is just about an eternity for a cat! Grace quickly fills your water bowl then grabs her keys and rushes out the door. BUT WHAT'S THIS?! She didn't remember to give you a pet or two before she left! How dare she!! Do you,

CHOICE ONE: Do nothing she loves you she probably just forgot
(user goes onto part 3)

PART 3

After grace leaves there isn't much for a cat to do. After playing with the string on the blinds, chasing dust under the couch and laying out in the sun you're pretty tuckered out. It's time for a good ol' fashion cat nap! You roam from room to room looking for just the perfect corner to curl up in. You spot Grace's plush pillow that you're not supposed to lay on, the recliner chair and your kitty bed. Do you,

CHOICE ONE: The pillow! Nothing says catnap more than a white plush pillow!
(User goes to the punishment page)

PART 4

You're woken from your nap to see a fly has gotten into the house. You know Grace hates bugs and she'll be upset to see it flying around when she gets home. It's time to get this fly! But be careful because you might knock things down and then Grace will be mad at you and the fly.

CHOICE ONE: Get the fly and don't knock anything down.
(user goes to the good cat bonus video page)

CHOICE TWO: Get that fly at all costs
(user goes to the bad cat page and back to part 4)

(user goes to bad cat page and back to part 4)

PART 5

Keys in the door! Grace is home yayyyyy! Time for some kitty lovin'. You know grace will be just as excited to see you as you are her so you dash to make it to the door. The quickest way to the door is along the foyer ledge but you might knock a frame down! Do you,

(User goes to the end page)

(User goes to bonus good cat page)
