To Whom It May Concern:

I am applying for this position as a Graphic Designer because I have the qualifications and the education to be a great asset to your company. My aim to build identity is something that I take pride in doing. IBM has always been a top branded company that provides technological services for people and other businesses across the world; therefore I would love to be an additional asset to this brand as a core designer.

I designed the logo for Norman Mechanical Inc., I designed flyers for event planners, and I even art directed small campaigns for young designers like myself. My skill in team leadership is something that I wear proudly and I am not scared to give advice and assistance. My experience in graphic design ties into communication design because knowing how to communicate well with different people is important to me.

I guarantee that I am a hard working, creative driven, mass communicating person that will help the growth and functionality of your company. I thank you for taking time out to consider my application. I look forward to hearing from you in regards to this position. I am available for an interview at your convenience. Feel free to contact me at (347) 376-3775 at anytime. My resume is also attached for further review.

Yours sincerely,

Paul A. Nembhard
