

Outline

Brailsford S.

Early Life

- Date and place of birth
- Family and childhood background (Parents and Siblings)

Adult Life

- career/dreams, children,

Substance

- When did you first start using any form of drug
- What drugs were you using
- How often did you use
- What was the catalyst for use of cocaine/crack
- What are some feelings/experiences that you had while high
- At any point did you feel like you had an addiction problem

Addiction & Family/Friends

- Was there anyone who knew of your addiction
- How/Did you maintain a balance of your daily life(mother, sister daughter, aunt, employee etc) and addiction
- How did you try to hide addiction from people
- What are some memories you have of your children (substance wise)
- Did any of your kids know of you addiction (if so at what age)
- What did you tell your kids when you had an addiction problem
- how did you think your addiction affect your children/family

Recovery

- What made you want to get clean
- Can you tell me about the day you knew you had to get clean
- What tools did you use get clean
- Did you ever relapse(what caused you to relapse if you did)
- How many years have you been clean
- Who are you now after this experience

Thomas R., Brailsford C. Massiah T. and Massiah E.

Early Life

- What is your role in the family (first born etc)
- What are some childhood memories of your mother

Mother's Addiction

- When did you know about your mother's addiction
- Did you know about her addiction before she told you(if not how did you find out)
- How did you feel about it/ about your mother
- Do you have any memories of your mother high
- How did you shield your younger siblings from her addiction

Mother's Recovery

- What were your thoughts when your mother sought out help
- What did that process look like
- How did you feel after she was clean
- Who is she now