This is your Week Ten To Do list that is emailed to your gmail address (and posted to OpenLab, Discord, and Drive). By completing these items you maintain attendance in the course and get everything out of it that you signed up for.

Introduction

OUR ZOOM MEETING ROOM

We are holding class discussion on Tuesday, October 27th and Thursday, October 29th from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. in our Zoom meeting room.

During these times, we will talk about Project #2 and the remainder of the work for the course.

You do not need to attend, but it will be helpful. These meetings will be recorded and hosted in the Course Documents folder. I will hold office hours immediately afterwards on Tuesday for those of you with additional questions or concerns.

Week 10: No Readings This Week

Again this week, my reading from Williams sits on my desk in my office at the college. There will be no readings this week. Instead, we will focus on looking forward to the remaining week of the course, including a self-evaluation discussion question.

Week 10: Respond to Discussion Questions on OpenLab (30 pts; Due 10/1)

For Week 10, you have one discussion question to respond to—a reflection of your ENG 1101 experience to date. Each Discussion Question is worth up to 15 points depending on how prepared your answer is and whether you have written a sufficiency of text in your response. You can find a link to the Discussion Questions tab below:

Week 11: Looking Ahead

In Week 11, Project #2 and your final assignment will be handed out. Project #2 will be a short reflective essay. For the final assignment, remember that the more readings you have completed this semester and taken notes on the easier it will be.
