Theme: Autumn Season

1. My mom dressed me in a three-piece outfit that consisted of a white hat with light pink flowers and pink border, a white dress with the same pink flower designs and pink border on it, and with light pink stockings. I was one year old at a picnic outing with my parents in September of 2000.
2. It was September 2001. I wore a dark green dress that had black colored designs and had white lace trimmings. I wore the dress with white sandals. My mom dressed me in this outfit while going to Long Island City piers.
3. It was October 2002. My mom dressed me in navy blue overalls that had pink and purple colored flowers in the middle and a white border underneath and on the lining of the pockets, along with a white short-sleeve with dark pink flowers on it.
4. An outfit I wore going apple picking upstate with my parents at four years old. It was in September 2003. I wore a navy-blue dress that had red apple designs on them with a matching hat.
5. I was five years old and my mom had dressed me in a mustard color short sleeve shirt, with a white overall dress that had orange and yellow flowers on them and patches of mustard and white plaid on the dress, with white stockings and a matching cap that was mustard and white with orange and yellow flowers and mustard and white plaid in the interior of the cap. I wore this to the playground in October 2004.
6. I was six years old in September 2005 and my mom dressed me in a light blue dress that had dark blue borders on the sleeves and at the top and bottom, with a bright red heart in the chest area of the dress along with other colorful designs around the heart. I wore this dress with white sandals. I was taking the subway with my parents.

7. I was seven years old going on a school trip to see a puppet show and ride horses in the field at some place upstate in October of 2006. My mom dressed me in a burgundy turtleneck with navy blue jeans, black boots, and a pink jacket.

8. I was sixteen years old at a farm in upstate New York on October 2015 with my friends. I wore a dark green oversized knitted sweater and black skinny jeans with a black leather jacket and brown boots.

9. It was October 2017 and I was eighteen years old at a pumpkin patch with my friend in Long Island, New York. I wore a short sleeve white shirt and blue overalls with white adidas sneakers.

10. It was October 2018 and I was nineteen years old dressing up for a Halloween party. I wore a black and green striped long sleeve blouse, black skirt, black stockings, and thigh-high black boots.

11. It was October 2019 and I decided to wear fall colors for work one day. I wore a rust orange colored knitted crop sweater with black work pants and black boots.

12. It was October 2020 and I was going to a pumpkin patch and apple garden with my friends. I wore a beige colored, loose fitting, long shirt dress with black leggings, black boots, and a grey colored hijab. It was my first time wearing a hijab and I wanted my outfit to look good but also modest.

13. It was October 2021 and for Halloween I wore a houndstooth design black and white dress with stockings, black suede boots, and black hijab. I also wore a crown and matching earrings.

14. It was November 2021 and for Thanksgiving I wore a black long sleeve, a plaid double-breasted sleeveless dress, with black leggings. I also wore a brown leather trench coat and black boots.
