GENDER & SEXUALITY STUDIES MINOR

Dr. Laura Westengard, Academic Minor Coordinator

WHAT IS IT?

Gender & Sexuality Studies is a scholarly expertise that provides a bridge to careers in healthcare, the law, education, journalism, writing (academic and creative), the arts, and social issue advocacy, among other professions. Students who find City Tech's Gender & Sexuality Studies concentration appealing will find no shortage of Gender Studies academic programming options within the City University of New York. CUNY colleges such as Hunter, Brooklyn, and York, among others, offer unique academic opportunities (certificate or degree) to further study within the discipline. Additionally, colleges and universities nationwide offer undergraduate and graduate programs which allow for the pursuit of meaningful and impactful careers that change the world around us.

GENDER & SEXUALITY STUDIES

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

The total number of required credits for the academic minor is 12 credits. You can even take classes that will go towards other requirements you need to fulfill towards your degree.

INTERESTED?

If you are interested in registering for this minor please reach out to Dr. Laura Westengard for further information.
