

Reader _____

Writer _____

1. What is the main point of the narration? Write it here:

2. Is the main point expressed clearly at the beginning of the paragraph? y/n

3. What is it? _____

4. Did the writer include the background information? y/n

5. What background information was included _____

-

6. Look at the writer's use of specific details and explanations. Did the writer include information about sight, sound, smell, touch, or taste in the paper? y/n

7. Provide a few examples of those sense details used by the writer

8. Is there any point you would like the writer to explain or describe in greater detail?

9. Are all the details in the introductory paragraph linked to the main point? y/n

10. If not, what details should be omitted (left out)? _____

11. Did the writer use dialog? y/n If yes, does the dialog give you information about the characters or the main point of the story?

Explain _____

12. Does the paragraph have a concluding sentence? y/n

13. What feeling does the concluding sentence leave you with?
