

GOV 1101: American Government
Peter Parides

Quiz #10-The Fourth Amendment (Khan Academy video)

Question #1 (True/False)

According to the video the police need to have probable cause in order to arrest someone.

True

Question #2 (True/False)

In order to obtain a judicial warrant the police must convince a judge that they have enough probable cause to conduct a search.

True

Question #3 (Short Answer)

According to the video what is an example of an “exigent circumstance” that would allow the police to conduct a search or make an arrest without a warrant?

Ans.: Bomb threat-“ticking time bomb”

Question #4 (Multiple Choice)

According to the video in which of these places do people not have a Fourth Amendment right against unlawful searches?

- a. Your home.
- b. Your pockets.
- c. Your packages.
- d. In a public area outdoors.

Question #5 (Multiple Choice)

According to the video in which of these situations do the police not need a warrant?

- a. To search a home.
- b. To arrest someone they believe has committed a crime.
- c. To watch someone walking down the street.