

GOV 1101: American Government
Peter Parides

Quiz #12-The Role of Congress and the President in Foreign Policy
(Council on Foreign Relations video)

Question #1 (Multiple Choice)

According to the video who has the constitutional authority to negotiate treaties?

- a. The House of Representatives.
- b. The Senate.
- c. The President.
- d. The Supreme Court.

Question #2 (True/False)

According to the video Congress has no authority when it comes to making foreign policy decisions.

False

Question #3 (Short Answer)

According to the Constitution what is the only institution of the federal government that has the authority to declare war?

Congress.

Question #4 (Multiple Choice)

According to the video which of these two institutions have had more influence and power in the area of foreign policy since World War II?

- a. Congress.
- b. The Presidency.

Question #5 (True/False)

According to the video presidents have used military force without Congress having first declared war.

True