Technology: All students will be responsible for Blackboard access and participation. SAFEASSIGN is administered for the submission of all assignments.

NYCCT Academic Integrity Policy

Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Accordingly, academic dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and at New York City College of Technology and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion.

Humanities Department Attendance Statement

It is the conviction of the Humanities department that a student who is not in a class for any reason is not receiving the benefit of the education being provided. Missed class time includes not just absences but also latenesses, early departures, and time outside the classroom taken by students during class meeting periods. Missed time impacts any portion of the final grade overtly allocated to participation and/or any grades awarded for activities that relate to presence in class.

Disability/Medical Accommodations Statement

City Tech is committed to supporting the educational goals of enrolled students with disabilities in the areas of enrollment, academic advisement, tutoring, assistive technologies and testing accommodations. If you have or think you may have a disability, you may be eligible for reasonable accommodations or academic adjustments as provided under applicable federal, state and city laws. You may also request services for temporary conditions or medical issues under certain circumstances. If you have questions about your eligibility or would like to seek accommodation services or academic adjustments, please contact the Center for Student Accessibility at 300 Jay Street room L-237, (718) 260- 5143 or <http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/accessibility/>

Students who miss a scheduled presentation or exam due to illness or medically-related emergencies will be referred to the Center for Students Accessibility. The CSA will review any documentation requested and give the student a letter to share with the relevant instructor if accommodations need to be made.

Humanities Diversity Statement

The Humanities Department complies with the college wide nondiscrimination policy and seeks to foster a safe and inclusive learning environment that celebrates diversity in its many forms and enhances our students' ability to be informed, global citizens. Through our example, we demonstrate an appreciation of the rich diversity of world cultures and the unique forms of expression that make us human.

NO CELL PHONE USE IN CLASS Talking on cell phones, checking or sending text messages, and otherwise using your cell phone during class is prohibited. Please do not wear headphones during class. Laptops are permissible for taking notes if you are seated in the first row. If you need to check your cell phone for an emergency situation, please inform me before class, leave your cell phone face down on your desk in silent mode, and take the emergency call or text outside the classroom. NO AUDIO RECORDING, PHOTO OR VIDEO OF LECTURE MATERIALS. Your best learning will happen when you are actively taking notes, looking at images, and listening to lecture—taking photos is a passive experience.

Student Conduct Policy

Any conduct that interferes with the educational process is prohibited in classes at NYCCT. This includes any behaviors that are dangerous, disruptive, disrespectful or disorderly. Students must use commonly accepted standards of courtesy, cooperation, consideration and mutual respect at all times. This includes: making rude or sarcastic comments towards the instructor or other students; speaking out of turn; speaking while the instructor or another student is speaking; or otherwise showing a lack of mutual respect for the instructor or peers in the classroom.

Assessment and Grading:

Activity	Explanation	Percent of Overall Grade
Participation	In-class work collected in person at the end of class, and discussions	25%
Object Analysis Paper	Completed outside of class and submitted on Black Board	15%
Midterm Exam	Take home exam	20%
Research Project	Oral presentation on Black Board Collaborate	20%
Final Exam	Take home exam	20%

Grading System: All grades will be based in proportion to the following scale: A = 93 - 100 A- = 90 - 92 B+ = 87 - 89 B = 83 - 86 B- = 80 - 82 C+ = 77 - 79 C = 70 - 76 D = 60 - 69 F = 59 and below. If a final grade is not a whole number, any decimal greater than .5 will be rounded up (e.g. 82.51 becomes an 83). Each assignment includes a clear rubric. Students need to submit assignments on or before the due date.

Grading and add/drop policies are in accordance with University policies and are recorded as:
WU-Unofficial Withdrawal (attended at least once)
WF-Withdrew Failing
WN-Unofficial
Withdrawal (never attended)

Process for Evaluation:

Outstanding (A) work goes beyond the package and presentation requirements.
Good (B) work meets all grading criteria, performed to top standards.
Average (C) work meets all but one or two of the grading criteria.
Below Average (D) work meets only one or two of the grading criteria.

Midterm Reports: All students will be notified through their CUNY- NYC College of Technology e-mail accounts and/or posted on Blackboard about their progress in this course by the mid-semester point. Mid-term grades are assessed as follows, per recommendation by the Office of the Provost: P-Passing, BL-Borderline, U-Unsatisfactory, SA-Stopped Attending.

Participation: Active participation includes taking notes during lecture and participating in classroom discussions, which have been commuted to Black Board Collaborate.

Exams: Because of CUNY's transition to remote learning, exam format has been modified.

Detailed guidelines for these and other assignments will be posted to Blackboard.

Please note: Homework assignments will be posted in detail and submitted through Black Board. In-class work is completed and collected on site. Recommended: Set aside 2-3 hours/week for homework assignments, lecture and image review, and reading assignments.

Guidelines for Written Assignments:

All papers MUST be typed. A page is the equivalent of a 1.5 line-spaced 8.5 x 11-inch paper with one-inch margins using 12-point Times New Roman font. Follow the page length guidelines for each assignment and number each page. All work MUST contain the student name, the course number, the date the assignment is submitted, and the name of the assignment.

Effective writing helps clarify ideas and communicate those ideas to others. Be organized, clear, and succinct. Grammar, punctuation, style, and spelling count. Write in college-level American English that is appropriate to the business community.

Papers will be graded on the following criteria:

- Clear and thorough application of direct and database concepts and principles (including material covered in the assigned reading, lectures, and discussions).
- Demonstration of original, logical, strategic thinking including a complete analysis of facts, logical synthesis, and persuasive conclusion/recommendation. Specific examples should support the analysis. Address the specific requirements of the assignment.

- Quality of research (depth, breadth, appropriateness) and proper acknowledgement of references, including complete citations using APA style in-text notes, when appropriate.
- Appropriate language and tone, accurate spelling, correct grammar, appropriate punctuation, and logical organization. You will not receive an A if your writing is awkward, contains grammatical or punctuation errors, or is disorganized.

In a case of an emergency, you may submit your assignment the following class day. You may e-mail your assignment to me prior the start of the class to get full credit. Documentation on Professional Letterhead of the emergency will be expected.
