

Quote (Remember to use page#!)	Response to the quote
In this column, you will put a quote that you find interesting or confusing, or maddening. In the case of the comic book, make sure you clarify who is speaking and describe the scene briefly.	Why is this quote important? Why have you chosen it? What do you want your reader to know or notice?
The X-men watch TV while a newscaster asks " After all, Charles, is it even fair to call mutants ' human?' The generic term for them is, I believe, ' Homo Superior, ' which relates to a different species altogether" Page 5	Even in the comic book world, this divide between " us" and " them" is dangerous, leading to violence against the X-men. There are any number of corresponding situations in contemporary life in which human beings have done the same thing—black vs. white, gay vs. straight, man vs. woman, rich vs. poor, jew vs. gentile (not jewish). This othering is dangerous.
