Whoopie pie origin

- Whoopie pie was invented in the United States in the state of Maine but originally, there was controversy about which state was the birthplace of the whoopie pie as Pennsylvania, Maine, Massachusetts, Virginia, and New Hampshire all claim to be where the birthplace of the Whoopie pie as the Pennsylvania Dutch convention & visitors bureau notes the whoopie pie recipe was from the area's Amish and Pennsylvania German culture origins and then the Labadie Bakery in Lewiston, Maine has been making the confection since 1925 and the Berwick Cake company of Roxbury, Massachusetts was selling the Whoopies as early as the 1920s but in 2011 the Maine state legislature considered naming the whoopie pie the official state dessert in Maine.
- The reason why a whoopie pie is called that is because according to food historians the Amish women would bake these delicious desserts with leftover cake batter and icing and would put them in farmers' lunchboxes and when the farmers would find these treats in their lunch they would shout out "Whoopis!"

What is a whoopie pie out?

A whoopie pie is describe a mini chocolate cake sandwich in a cookie form. It is made of two round pieces of chocolate cake with a creamy filling or frosting sandwiched between them. Traditional filling a marshmallow filling, but the whoopie pie can be filled with different kinds of buttercream are widely used too.

Whoopie pie festival

The first whoopie pies was sold from the Labadie's bakery in Lewiston Maine in the 1925. Well, the people in Maine have a tradition they like to do which is a whoopie pie festival where people can go can taste different types of whoopie pies, play games, and have fun with friends and family. The whoopie pie festival began way back in 2009 and it still going today in 2021 in the Piscataquis county.

Labadie's Bakery

In Labadie's Bakery they have the whoopie pies already made if you want to buy one of their different type whoopie pies so it can be delivered to you on their online website. The way they make the whoopie pie is first make the chocolate cake batter and also the creamy filling for the whoopie pies which usually vanilla buttercream, marshmallow cream, or sometime just frosting and after they are done making the components of the whoopie pies they can now use two round small chocolate cakes and the whoopie pie filling so they can assemble the whoopie pies which first they put the whoopie pie filling on one side of the round small cake and then put the other round small chocolate cake on top the filling sandwiching it and lastly then put the whoopie pies in some small plastic bags with the Labadie's bakery name on the plastic bags and depending how much whoopie pies you are ordering put then whoopie pies in a big box so to be delivered to the people who order this tasty treats from Labadie's bakery.
