

36 Hours below 59th St

By: Pedro Balbuena

New York is full of history and heritage. At every turn of a crowded sidewalk you can see buildings and avenues that have been around for decades and continue to be apart of what makes New York such a historic place to visit. New York Heritage is made up of the blood, sweat, and tears of New Yorkers. For decades Immigrants and Lost souls come to New York to find themselves. Some find themselves, others have changed New York for the better. Inspiring others to be their best constantly changing New York's intellectual structure.

Friday

Good Morning | 8:00 a.m.

Grab some breakfast. Toasties, Isadora's café, and Starbucks are some of the deli's and or coffee shops around your first destination St. Patrick's Cathedral. St. Patrick's Cathedral is an iconic church with storied history. St. Patrick's Cathedral is free to public. Feel free to roam around the church and soak in the beauty of the paintings and the structure of the church entirely.

Holy Grail | 10:30 a.m.

Feeling inspired after seeing the beautiful structure and paintings St. Patricks Cathedral has to offer, Great Head on over to The Museum of Modern Art which is located on W 54th St between 6th and 5th Avenue. The Moma is filled of modern and contemporary art exhibitions that address a wide range of subject matters and time periods. They also highlight the significance of recent developments in the visual arts and new interpretations of major artists and art historical movements. Indulge in the art the Moma has to offer and let your mind travel to the past and back to the present. Cost of admission Adults $25, Seniors 65 and over $18, Students $14, and children 16 and under are free.

Fancy Much? | 2:30 p.m.

Hungry? You can head over to The Modern, Moma's own restaurant. It's a mixture of French and New American fare. The restaurant also has garden views to the Moma. Want to try something else New York has to offer? there are plenty of other restaurants you can go to. China Grill, Fogo de Chao Brazilian Steakhouse, 21 Club, Soba Nippon, are some other options, All are walking distance from the Moma.

Too Much Sauce? | 5:30 p.m.

Ate too much? Go and walk some calories off. Head on over to the Rockefeller Center. During this time of year you can see the Rockefeller Christmas tree that lights up the whole area. You can ice skate under the tree and soak in the view. (Adults $25 Children under 11 and Seniors $15 skate rentals $12). The Rockefeller center is surrounded by various clothing stores and shops. You can roam around and browse or shop at these stores.

Saturday

High Life | 9:00 a.m.

The Highline starts at Gansevoort Street in the Meatpacking District to West 34th Street, between 10th and 12th Avenues. The highline was used by trains to transport goods to and from Manhattan's largest industrial districts. Since then the City has decided to turn it into a park. At 1.45 miles long the highline is full of life, plant life from grass to flowers. The Highline also offers amazing views of the parts of the city the Highline passes through.

New Beginnings | 10:30 a.m.

New York is an economical giant thanks to the world trade centers. The tragic events of September 11, 2001 still linger with us today. Our city will never forget those who gave their lives to protect us. There are memorials that honor the names of those who gave their lives for the safety of others. Located in 180 Greenwich St, the reflective pools have the names of these brave souls engraved all around the edges. Next to the reflective pools is the 911 museum that holds Pictures, Artwork, and Sculptures that represent that horrific day. Adults $24, US college student $18, Senior (65+) $18, Youth (7-17) $15, US Veterans $18, Members are Free.

Tough Decisions | 12:30 p.m.

Brookfield Place located at 230 Vesey St is a towering waterfront office complex offering shopping, dining & ice-skating, plus special events. In this mall there is a food court that offers a variety of food options and it also offers a variety of restaurants to dine at. CHOP'T, BLACK SEED BAGEL, BLUE RIBBON SUSHI, BAR CAFE AT EQUINOX, DOS TOROS TAQUERIA, LITTLE MUENSTER, MIGHTY QUINN'S BARBEQUE, NORTHERN TIGER, NUM. PANG, OLIVE'S P.J. CLARKE'S SKINNY PIZZA, SPRINKLES, STARBUCKS and much more.

On Top of The World | 3:00 p.m.

The One World Observatory is also next to the museum and it can't be missed. On the last floor you'll be able to see all Of Manhattan and even more. Adults $32 Senior $32 Child $28. There are packages that can be bought and offer different things. There is a date night package for two and some extras the package brings that starts at $89. And priority tickets that allows you to skip the line. Also starting at a similar price.

Classics | 8:00 p.m.

Carnegie Hall is a concert venue located at 881 Seventh Avenue. There are many live concerts held at this venue. Carnegie hall has been around for a long time providing New Yorkers with a space they can go see anything from live classical music to live dance performances in. General Admission For an Event is $50.

Sunday

In Touch With Nature | 10:00 a.m.

Washington Square Park became a public park in 1827. It is located at 5 Ave, Waverly Pl., W. 4 St. and Macdougall St. This park is visited by all kinds of people. Skateboarders, Children, Chess Enthusiasts, the whole works. This park is well know for the Washington Square Arch. The park also holds events that people can participate in. Like the Winter Tree Identification Walk which is held during this season. Washington Square Park has dozens of different trees, including such well-known species as elms, maples, oaks, and cherries, and some more uncommon ones, including birch and katsura. This event challenges its participants because during the winter trees become harder to identify. If you up for the challenge you know where to go. If not Washington Square Park is still a nice place to sit down and have a conversation in.

Hungry Much? | 12:00 p.m.

Need to Re Energize? No problem there are a few food venues all around you. Chick-fil-A, OTTO Enoteca e Pizzeria, Babbo are some of the various location you can make a quick stop to eat in before you move on to your next location.

Flat Avenues | 2:00 p.m.

The Flatiron Building was built in 1902 between Fifth Avenue and Broadway. It is an iconic building featuring French and Italian Renaissance influences. The building is an architectural masterpiece and is a great place to visit and take photographs at.

New York State of Mind | 5:00 p.m.

The Empire State Building opened on May 1, 1931. It has a lot of history, both tragic and weird. As a world-known landmark, it holds a great view of New York. For the main deck, Adult Price $34, Child Price $27, Senior Price $31. Top floor and main deck Adult Price $54, Child Price $47, Senior Price $51. There are exhibits that highlight the procedure of the construction of the Empire State Building. A unique exhibit that makes the Empire State Building stand out is its Sustainability Initiative. Its Sustainability Exhibit is on the 2nd floor queue. The exhibit showcases the state-of-the-art technology and processes that went into their change to sustainability. the exhibit shows the remarkable renovation process in a fun, comprehensible way, using a combination of digital displays, sculptures, and actual building materials, that will inspire all who visit.

References

Empire State Building | ESB NYC. (2016). Retrieved December 5, 2016, from <http://www.esbnyc.com/>

FlatIron Building | History. (2016). Retrieved December 5, 2016, from <http://www.history.com/topics/flatiron-building>

BrookField | BrookFieldNY. (2016) Retrieved December 4, 2016, from <https://brookfieldplaceny.com/>

Carnegie Hall | Carnegie Hall Corporation. (2016) Retrieved December 4, 2016, from <https://www.carnegiehall.org/default.aspx?logoonly>

911 Memorial | 911 Memorial & Museum. (2016). Retrieved December 5, 2016, from <https://www.911memorial.org/>.

Washington Square Park | NYC Parks. (n.d.). Retrieved December 3, 2016, from <https://www.nycgovparks.org/parks/washington-square-park>

One World Observatory | World Trade Center. (2016). Retrieved December 3, 2016, from <https://oneworldobservatory.com/>

The High Line | Friends of the High Line. (n.d.). Retrieved December 05, 2016, from <http://www.thehighline.org/>

St. Patrick's Cathedral | America's Parish Church. (n.d.). Retrieved December 04, 2016, from <https://saintpatrickscathedral.org/>

Museum of Modern Art | MoMA. (2016). Retrieved December 03, 2016, from <https://www.moma.org/>