MOOD BOARD

Inspiration

Two Roads diverged in a wood, and I took the one less traveled by.
- The road not taken

A stylized illustration of a road with a large cloud containing text. The road is dark grey with white dashed lines, leading towards a horizon. On either side of the road are green hills and trees with yellow foliage. The sky is light blue with several light blue clouds. A large, light blue cloud in the center contains the text.
