

Donald R. Marozas, Jr.
donald.r.marozas@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To obtain an entry level internship position in the human services occupation from September through December 2017, by serving nine hours each week throughout that period of time.

EDUCATION

Currently enrolled, New York City College of Technology, New York, NY - B.S. Human Services
Master of Science, May 2000, Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL – M.S. Sports Administration
Bachelor of Science, December 1998, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, IL – B.S. Program Management

QUALITATIVE EXPERIENCE

Maturity and discipline with significant experience in ethical management and leadership forged in stressful environments. Strong administrative skills and technically competent in office and field operations. Extraordinarily experienced in providing purpose, direction and motivation to colleagues and subordinates alike.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

UNITED STATES ARMY

DISCHARGE STATUS

Nov. 2005 – Nov. 2016

MOS 56M-Chaplain Assistant
(Executive Administrative Assistant)

HONORABLE

Jul. 2013 – Jul. 2016

Kuwait / Afghanistan

Deployed in a multi-theater combat operation in OEF with the 160th Strategic Signal Brigade, served with an elite signal intelligence unit in an active combat role. Responsible for the direct supervision of eight subordinates Soldiers operating in three countries. Planned, coordinated, and executed multiple operations involving the management of dozens of individuals simultaneously.

Nov. 2009 – Jul. 2013

New York, New York

Responsible for twelve subordinate Soldiers serving at USAG Fort Hamilton. Performed all administrative leadership functions common to NCO leadership. Provided purpose, direction, and motivation to a highly technically skilled work force. Lead, trained, and provided supervision twelve elite Soldiers for four consecutive years in an extremely intense counter-terrorism environment.

Mar. 2008 – Nov. 2009

Baghdad, Iraq

Served in OIF as force protection for a US Army Chaplain in the 4th Infantry Division while deployed in combat operations in an extraordinarily hostile environment. Performed technical, tactical, and logistical support in support of free movement throughout all desired battle-space.

Nov. 2005 – Mar. 2008

Fort Hood / Killeen, Texas

Served as a Battalion Chaplain Assistant in a garrison and training environment. Directly responsible for the handling of cash, the management of personnel, facilities and supplies in support of imminent combat operations. Gained invaluable experience preparing and conducting briefings to high level officials with Power Point, V.T.C., as well as through various sensitive / secret means of communication through official US Government channels of communication.