Dear Marta,

I accept your invitation to guest lecture in the Black New York course. I am looking forward to discussing tourism and the cultural heritage of Blacks in New York. Tourism in Harlem then (The Harlem Renaissance for example) and now (Gospel Tourism) may be a lecture topic. The impact of gentrification on tourism in Harlem may be a possible lecture topic as well. Let's have lunch soon. Thank you.

Regards,
Susan

Dear Professor Effinger-Crichlow,

This email is to inform you that I would be willing to serve as a guest lecturer for the newly design AFR3000 course entitled Black New York. Given my area of focus in Health and Human Services, I would be able to provide the students a wealth of information and intriguing discussions.

Should you need further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,
Professor Christine Thorpe

Dear Marta,

I am glad for our earlier conversation about your Spring 2014 interdisciplinary course AFR 3000: Black New York. I am very enthusiastic about the prospect of guest lecturing on Information Literacy with respect to archival materials and documented personal narratives, as well as exploring and demonstrating the value of mapping tools and techniques in an interdisciplinary classroom.

I look forward to working with you and your students.

Best,
Anne

Subject: AFR 3000 - Guest Lecture Availability

Tuesday - November 19, 2013 3:20 PM

Dear Professor Effinger:

I am writing to inform you that I would be delighted to serve as a guest lecturer for AFR 3000 - Black New York - whenever it is offered and whenever my contributions would be useful to the course. I am available to lecture on the subjects of anthropology, art, and media - as well as a range of other subjects - in relationship to people of African descent in New York.

Thank you for including me in the roster of guest lecturers for this exciting course!

Sincerely,

Dionne Bennett, Ph.D.

I am willing to serve as a guest Lecturer for the AFR 300: Black New York. This is an exciting course and I have written on topics that relates to themes addressed in this course such as Caribbean immigration and radicalism in the nineteenth and twentieth century. Therefore there are a wide range of lectures and presentations that I am willing to design to further the promulgation of this course.

Best,

Kofi Barima
