Take a look at the exhibits on the 1st Floor and downstairs.

1. Consider yourself an art critic. Choose one piece from The Original Art Show that you like. Why does the illustration appeal to you? (If possible, find the book on the shelf in the gallery and read it.) Describe the subject matter, color palette, composition, and focal points in the painting. Would this be an illustration that you would frame and hang on the wall of your home?

2. Find an illustration that you don't like. This can be in any of the galleries. You are an art critic and have distinct opinions! Discuss why you don't like the art. Is it the content? The execution? The color? The composition? The illustrator's stylistic approach? The media used? Does it remind you of something that is off-putting?
