To Whom It Concern,

I am writing this reference letter on the request of Mr. Jawwad Butt, who is applying for a position as a Registered Nurse at your hospital. I have been knowing Jawwad for over a decade as both a friend and as a co-worker while he volunteered at Coney Island Hospital.

Jawwad has several strengths to offer your hospital. He is very skilled, responsible, efficient, enthusiastic, and a kindhearted individual. While volunteering at Coney Island Hospital, Jawwad distinguished himself as an outstanding volunteer among all others. He constantly provided safe sympathetic nursing assistance to the nursing staff and the patients. He was always eager to go a step further than expected and consequently made lots of great connections with the nursing staff. Moreover, he always kept a professional relationship with staff and had an admirable attendance record.

To put it briefly, I would highly recommend Mr. Jawwad Butt for a position of Registered Nurse at your Hospital. If his performance at Coney Island Hospital is any sign of how he will perform as a nurse, I believe Jawwad will be a positive addition to your organization. In case of any query please don't hesitate to contact me.

I wish him best of luck in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,
