Hi Jason,

I just want to say thanks again for all of the work that you did in making last week's conference a success--everything from early brainstorming--to setting up meetings with Rona--to working on the program--to moderating the panel--and on and on---so, Thanks.

Too bad you were not able to join us for a drink afterwards. We went to the Marriott and did a little unwinding.

I loved doing a conference in our new building!!

Talk to you soon.

Best,
Richard
